

The Fenway and Hattie Song

(Inspired by Chapter 9 of the book FENWAY AND HATTIE by Victoria J. Coe)

by Matthew Griffin and St. Thomas More Room 3A

© 2017 Matthew Griffin

I'm a great little dog, with a really loud bark

And I don't like squirrels running in the park

If one comes near, I chase it up a tree

Just one bark, and they're afraid of me

My very best friend, a small human named Hattie

Has a new best friend, and she doesn't like me

It's all Hattie and Angel, when it used to be me

Goldie and Patches see a change in me

Chorus (2X): But I'm gonna get her back, somehow, some way

Cuz there's no better friends, Hattie and Fenway

And the one thing I've learned, the hardest thing of all

Small humans don't like it, when you steal baseballs

The last one I stole, I knew something was wrong

When I got to the gate, Hattie was gone

Chorus (2X)